

Commodity Futures Trading Commission

§ 1.29

bank, trust company, clearing organization or other futures commission merchant shall allow inspection of such obligations at any reasonable time by representatives of the Commission.

(b) Each clearing organization which invests money belonging or accruing to commodity or option customers of its clearing members in instruments described in §1.25 shall separately account for such instruments and segregate such instruments as belonging to such commodity or option customers. Such instruments, when deposited with a bank or trust company, shall be deposited under an account name which will clearly show that they belong to commodity or option customers and are segregated as required by the Act and this part. Each clearing organization upon opening such an account shall obtain and retain in its files a written acknowledgment from such bank or trust company that it was informed that the instruments belong to commodity or option customers of clearing members and are being held in accordance with the provisions of the Act and this part. Such acknowledgment shall be retained in accordance with §1.31. Such bank or trust company shall allow inspection of such instruments at any reasonable time by representatives of the Commission.

§ 1.27 Record of investments.

(a) Each futures commission merchant which invests customer funds, and each clearing organization which invests customer funds of its clearing members' customers or option customers, shall keep a record showing the following:

- (1) The date on which such investments were made;
- (2) The name of the person through whom such investments were made;
- (3) The amount of money so invested;
- (4) A description of the instruments in which such investments were made, including the CUSIP or ISIN numbers;
- (5) The identity of the depositories or other places where such instruments are segregated;
- (6) The date on which such investments were liquidated or otherwise disposed of and the amount of money received of such disposition, if any; and

(7) The name of the person to or through whom such investments were disposed of.

(b) Each clearing organization which receives documents from its clearing members representing investment of customer funds shall keep a record showing separately for each clearing member the following:

(1) The date on which such documents were received from the clearing member;

(2) A description of such documents, including the CUSIP or ISIN numbers; and

(3) The date on which such documents were returned to the clearing member or the details of disposition by other means.

(c) Such records shall be retained in accordance with §1.31. No such investments shall be made except in instruments described in §1.25.
